

We all have the ability to create absolutely anything at any age.

The Yes Movie

A Louis Lautman Film
Founder of the Young Entrepreneur Society

Global Movie Premiere

Plus Q&A with the film's executive producer, Louis Lautman

Wednesday, Feb. 25, 2009

Noon - 2 p.m.

Glenn Auditorium, Robert A. Dempster Hall

FEATURING:

At 19, Ben Casnocha serves on the board of the leading e-government technology firm that he founded six years ago.

Raised in the projects on Chicago's south side, Dr. Farrah Gray became a self-made millionaire by the age of 14.

Katrina Campins starred in The Apprentice and now is one of the country's most successful real estate professionals.

Dan Caldwell (far left) is the strong, silent type with the entrepreneurial mind in Tapout's trio of founders.

Plus many more of the country's top young entrepreneurs and their secrets to help you succeed.

Southeast
Missouri State University

For more information, contact the Center for Entrepreneurial Studies at (573) 651-2010.